

Walteria News Notes

Well, here I am again, and my husband and I are about to pop all the buttons off our vests, since we now have another addition to our little family. Yes, brother Billy now has a little sister named Marilee Helen. She made her entry on the 22nd of July at the Torrance Memorial Hospital at exactly 3:35 a.m. Only a little mite, she weighed in at six pounds, eight ounces, and was nineteen inches long. We love to show her off, so if you want to, come around and have a look.

Speaking of blessed events, one of our infantile ladies was honored with a stork shower on Thursday, July 24, when a group of neighbors got together at the home of Mrs. Gerrie Bowen, Danaha St. Honoree of the party was Mrs. Ina Lou Milgate, who was surprised as well as pleased. The affair was a buffet luncheon served on the patio. The ladies smacked their lips over such luscious tidbits as cold cuts, Swiss cheese, potato salad, pickles and lemon bisque. Those there to offer their gifts and best wishes for honoree Ina Lou were hostess Gerrie Bowen, co-hostess Jo Mills, Joyce Beers, Mayvane Allen, Marie Cunningham, Sylvia Fitzpatrick, Carol McFarland, Bea Monaghan, Clara Williams, Betty Joslin and Billie Rappe.

So sorry about the tragedy which struck at our community Walteria Baptist Church on Newton Ave. Seems that it never rains but what it pours — the folks were so busy building their new addition, it seems a shame for such a setback to come along. Fortunately they didn't lose too much of the new lumber, etc. which was there for use on the new addition. May we sincerely wish them better luck in the future.

A little late, but we just found out that Betty and Jack Myers of Cricklewood had very welcome visitors in the persons of Betty's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Becker, all during the month of June. Mr. and Mrs. Becker are from Lynbrook, N. Y. While here they were taken for several short tours of some of the interest spots here in Southern California. High point of their visit was a trip to Laguna and a dinner at Victor Hugo's in celebration of their 29th wedding anniversary. The meal included a baked Alaska with Twenty-nine written on it. This festive touch combined with glass-topped tables and colorful bouquets of flowers made the occasion altogether enjoyable. Their comment upon leaving to return to New York was "We'll be back!" Glad they had such a good time.

The gentle clink of crystal and silver was heard on Danaha St. last week when the Circle No. 2 of the WSCS held a silver tea at the home of Mrs. Gerrie Bowen on Wednesday afternoon. The ladies attending slipped punch and sherbet floats while enjoying a riotous program of style showing put on by the young "ladies" of the neighborhood. "Models" for the afternoon were Misses Sandra Bowen, Mary Lou Beers, Trudy Fitzpatrick, Cathleen Berglund, Linda McFarland, Carol and Melba Jean Allen.

Off for a wedding are Mr. and Mrs. Milton Langum and children of Newton St. They left Tuesday, July 29, for San Francisco, where they will attend the wedding of Mr. Langum's brother. The event is set for August 3.

Little Miss Claire Ellen Myers, Cricklewood St., played hostess last week when she entertained 12 friends in celebration of her third birthday. The party was held from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. and included a luncheon of sandwiches, milk, and a beautiful big cake decorated half pink and half blue topped with candles. Nut cups were also in half pink and half blue, and were shaped like small cradle baskets. They joined in playing several games, among which pin the tail on the donkey was highly enjoyed. Paper hats, snapper favors and balloons helped make the party a lot of fun. Guests included Renee Cartel, Cathleen Berglund, Ginger Matthews, Susan Hughes, Linda Bradley, Bruce Berglund, Johnny Gall, Johnny Hahn, James Osborn, David Wilson, Jeffrey Nash, and Jimmy Hughes. May we add our congratulations to those of her friends.

QUOTE 'N VEST
By Jack Treskes

Did you hear about the deaf mute lady who bawled out her deaf mute husband one night and before he could reply turned out the light?

Which reminds me of some suits I have seen on some men. They would look far better with the lights turned off.

In truth, the perfectly dressed man does not wear more expensive clothes than the imperfectly dressed man. It's just a matter of proper selection. That's why we say: "If you want to look better, better look in Treskes Men's Wear, 1319 El Prado (between Newberry's and McCown Drug).
